

COURSE CATALOG

Avoid "Getting into Debt"

This class focuses on identifying and correcting behaviors that lead to unmanageable debt. You'll learn about key sources/factors that lead to debt as we equip you with debt management tools to help with your journey.

"Types of Spenders" Budgeting Reality Check

This fun course helps participants identify spending personalities and habits to improve your relationship with money. This personality reality check will help you take control of your budget.

"Credit" to Your Advantage

This credit all-in-one class covers various credit factors to empower your success in building, maintaining, using, and choosing credit for your advantage.

Saving and Investing Basics

This class covers some of the key principles when implementing financial plans for saving. Discussion topics include long/short term options for retirement and non-retirement savings goals.

Credit Repair "DIY"

This class will cover credit factors impacting your scores and credit reports. We will also discuss disputes, ways to repair your credit, and impactful ways to communicate with creditors.

Your Guide to Dumping Debt

This course covers debt elimination options including, do it yourself debt canceling plans, and communication methods to use when working with creditors and bureaus.

Understanding and Avoiding Predatory Loans

Accepting predatory offers is one of the leading causes of debt. This class will cover the impact and help participants identify characteristics of predatory loans and offers for various types of credit.

Car Buying with Confidence

This class helps equip and prepare participants to purchase a car with confidence. Topics include budget and research prep, buying options, private sales, and working with dealerships.

Money Talks "with" Students

This series offers catered interactive content that will resonate with students from kindergarten to high school. Contact the ProsperU Director for more details and to request the student course catalog list.

Budgeting Basics

Budgeting classes are catered to the audience and may include topics surrounding budget implementation, impact, planning, and more.

Preparing for Homeownership

Homebuying classes can be catered to cover the various topics associated with homeownership including credit, working with lenders, budgeting, expenses to consider, and more. Classes may include expert guest speakers and are scheduled based on availability.

Protecting Yourself from Identity Theft and Fraud

Dealing with fraud can have a major impact on your finances. This class will touch on various types of fraud and identity theft as we discuss ways to protect yourself.