WE ARE THANKFUL FOR YOU
TRAVELING WITH US ALL THESE YEARS!

A Mediterranean cruise is a dream come true for many travelers, offering the chance to explore stunning landscapes, rich history, and vibrant cultures. This itinerary takes you through some of the most iconic destinations, including the enchanting islands of Corfu and Santorini, the historical treasures of Athens, the picturesque coast of Kusadasi in Turkey, and the beautiful Italian regions of Sicily and Naples.

Corfu is a lush and beautiful island known for its stunning beaches and Venetian architecture. Explore Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site, with its narrow streets and charming squares.

Santorini has dramatic sunsets and whitewashed buildings perched on cliffs. Visit the ancient ruins of Akrotiri, a Minoan city preserved by volcanic ash. Enjoy wine tasting at one of the island vineyards.

Athens is the historical heart of Greece. Known for its rich history and archaeological treasures. A must see is the Acropolis and the Acropolis Museum. Do stroll down the Plaka district, known for its charming streets, shops, and cafes, and indulge in traditional Greek cuisine at a local taverna.

Kusadasi is the next stop serving as the gateway to the ancient city of Ephesus. See the Library of Celsus, the Great Theatre and the ruins of the Temple of Artemis. Also see the House of the Virgin Mary: A pilgrimage site believed to be the final home of Mary, mother of Jesus. Don't forget to explore the bustling bazaars of Kusadasi, where you can shop for local handicrafts.

Sicily, Italy is Italy's largest island, known for its rich history and stunning landscapes. Must see is Taormina offering stunning views of Mount Etna and Palermo which is the capital of Sicily. Taste local Sicilian delicacies like arancini (stuffed rice balls) and cannoli, and then take a stroll in the Botanical Gardens in Palermo. Naples is known as the birthplace of pizza.

Must see is Pompeii – the ancient city of Pompeii is preserved by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 AD.

The Mediterranean cruise offers a perfect blend of breathtaking landscapes, rich history, and culinary delights across Greece and Turkey, finishing with the charm of Italy. Whatever you decide to explore in the Med you will have unforgettable experiences and memories to cherish for a lifetime. ■

Exploring the Beauty of Central America and Mexico with a complete Transit through the Panama Canal

February 24 – March 13, 2026

Embark on a once-in-a-lifetime cruise that takes you on an unforgettable journey through the Panama Canal and into the heart of Central America and Mexico. This voyage offers a perfect blend of history, culture, nature, and pristine beaches as you visit iconic ports in Panama, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, and Mexico. With each stop, you'll discover unique landscapes, rich traditions, and welcoming people. Let's take a closer look at the ports you'll visit along the way.

Panama City, Panama

A Gateway to the World

Your adventure begins in Panama City, the vibrant capital of Panama, famous for its historical significance and modern skyline. The Panama Canal is undoubtedly the star of the show, and you'll have the chance to witness its incredible engineering feat. For a taste of Panama's culture, visit Casco Viejo, the colonial heart of Panama City, where cobbled streets, colorful buildings, and charming cafes await. Don't miss the nearby Amador Causeway, offering stunning views of the city skyline and the canal.

Puerto Caldera (Puntarenas), Costa Rica:

Nature's Paradise

Next, the cruise heads to Puerto Caldera, Costa Rica's primary port on the Pacific coast. The port is a gateway to explore some of the country's most stunning natural wonders. Take a day trip to the nearby Carara National Park, where you can hike through tropical rainforests and spot exotic wildlife, such as scarlet macaws and white-faced monkeys. For those seeking adventure, visit the Arenal Volcano, one of the most active volcanoes in the world, and enjoy the hot springs and waterfalls nearby. Alternatively, you can relax on the golden beaches of the Gulf of Nicoya.

San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua:

Coastal Charm and Adventure

San Juan del Sur, a beautiful beach town located on the Pacific coast of Nicaragua, is known for its laid-back atmosphere, lush landscapes, and stunning sunsets. The town is a popular spot for surfers, and its calm waters are perfect for beginners and seasoned wave riders alike. Beyond the beach, you can explore the surrounding area, including the La Flor Wildlife Reserve, where you can witness the incredible phenomenon of sea turtles nesting. Nature lovers will also enjoy hiking in the Mombacho Volcano Nature Reserve.

Huatulco, Mexico: A Hidden Gem on the Mexican Pacific

Huatulco, located on Mexico's Pacific coast in the state of Oaxaca, is a relatively undiscovered paradise that boasts nine stunning bays and 36 pristine beaches. The area's protected marine life, lush jungles, and crystal-clear waters make it an ideal destination for eco-tourism. Explore the Copalita Eco-Archaeological Park, where you can see ancient ruins and learn about the region's rich indigenous history. If you prefer something more relaxed, simply unwind on one of Huatulco's beautiful beaches, such as Bahía de Santa Cruz.

Puerto Vallarta, Mexico:

The final stop on your journey brings you to Puerto Vallarta, one of Mexico's most beloved beach destinations. Known for its charming cobblestone streets, colorful buildings, and lush mountains, Puerto Vallarta is a perfect blend of old-world charm and modern luxury. Stroll along the Malecón, a vibrant waterfront promenade lined with sculptures, cafes, and shops. Discover the Zona Romántica, where you'll find an array of art galleries, boutiques, and restaurants offering delicious Mexican cuisine. For a touch of adventure, take a boat ride to Los Arcos, a series of dramatic rock formations that rise from the sea, or go whale watching during the season.

A Journey to Remember

Cruising through the Panama Canal is a spectacular experience, but the true magic lies in the variety of cultures, landscapes, and experiences that await you at each port of call. From the engineering marvel of the Panama Canal to the lush rainforests of Costa Rica, the beaches of Nicaragua, the hidden treasures of Huatulco, and the vibrant energy of Puerto Vallarta, this journey offers the perfect mix of adventure and relaxation.

This cruise will surely be an unforgettable adventure. Don't miss out on the chance to sail through the Panama Canal and explore some of the most stunning destinations in Central America and Mexico. ■

Alaska Land Tour

Alaska, known as the Last Frontier, is a land of stunning landscapes, diverse wildlife, and vibrant culture. A land tour through some of its most iconic destinations promises an unforgettable experience filled with adventure and breathtaking sights. The guide highlights the must-see locations including Denali National Park, Talkeetna, Seward, the Kenai Fjords National Park and Anchorage.

Denali is home to North America's tallest peak, Denali (formerly known as Mt. McKinley) which rises majestically to 20,310 ft. Spanning over six million acres, the park offers a stunning array of landscapes, from rolling tundra to rugged mountains.

You will keep your eyes peeled for grizzly bears, moose, caribou, and wolves as you traverse the park's scenic roads. The best way to experience Denali is a guided tour or ranger-led hike, allowing you to delve deeper into the park's natural wonders.

Talkeetna is a charming town, a former gold rush hub that still retains its historic character. It is a popular base for climbers attempting to summit Denali. For local flavors you can take a stroll along Talkeetna's quirky Main Street and find local shops, art galleries and cafes. Get a chance to sample local cuisine including freshly caught salmon and homemade baked goods.

The coastal town of Seward is located on the Kenai Peninsula. A picturesque town and the gateway to the Kenai Fjords National Park. Hop on a boat and cruise through the park, where you can witness calving glaciers, spot sea otters and seals, and maybe catch a glimpse of a humpback whale.

Get ready for the sight of a massive glacier which can break parts off into the sea for an awesome experience.

This land tour through Alaska is a journey into one of the most breathtaking regions of the world. Pack your bags, embrace the spirit of adventure, and get ready to explore the wonders of Alaska. ■
